P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, religion has inculcated in man those moral and ethical principles that are the basis of our civilization, and

WHEREAS, all men must recognize a common brotherhood under one God, and

WHEREAS, there is increasing concern about the moral trends of our age and an urgent need for a revitalized assertion of religion capable of strengthening the bonds between peoples of all creeds, classes and races, and of providing mankind with a set of values and a purpose in life that is relevant to and meaningful in the modern world, and

WHEREAS, the members of the Baha'i Faith of the State of South Dakota are joining in the national observance of World Religion Day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank L. Farrar, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim Sunday, January 18, 1970, as in the State, in the fervent hope that it will stimulate the members of this State to take a renewed and active interest in religion as a dynamic force for brotherhood of man and the true advancement of civilization.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of December in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.

Frank L. Farrar
